Partnering with P&Cs to advance
public education

Does your P&C have a voice? Does your P&C have a suitable person who is willing to represent your Electorate on the State Council of WACSSO?

The Western Australian Council of State School Organisations Inc. (WACSSO) represents the interests of parents, citizens, and students associated with government schools in Western Australia. WACSSO plays an important role in the development of education policies and influences the direction of education for the benefit of students and towards the views held by parents.

The role of the volunteer State Councillor is to assist P&Cs in resolving issues at a local level and canvas local P&C opinion on educational issues, ensuring WACSSO accurately represents our affiliates at a state and national level.

New State Councillors will be supported as they develop in their role through a mentor (buddy) system as well as training. A willingness to actively participate in discussions both at State Council meetings and with affiliates in the Electorate the Councillor represents is essential. While the volunteer State Councillor works with passion as they represent their Electorate, they also have a responsibility to abide by the WACSSO Constitution and Code of Conduct.

WACSSO is calling for nominations to fill the position of State Councillor to represent your Electorate. For further information please see below.

Candidates must complete the online nomination form. Once submitted, candidates will receive a PDF of the information provided via email. The PDF needs to be signed by two P&C Office Bearers (not the applicant) and returned with the P&C meeting minutes at which the nomination motion was voted on and accepted, a copy of the candidate's P&C membership receipt and either an Education Department Screening Clearance no older than 6 months or evidence that the clearance application has been submitted, to the WACSSO office by noon, Friday 6 September 2024. The Election pack is available on our website www.wacssso.wa.edu.au

Any additional information can be obtained by contacting the WACSSO office.

Yours sincerely,
